About us.....

Established in 2001, the Dutch Fork Choral Society is a non-profit all volunteer community choral ensemble with a passion for sharing the gift of music. Through participation, members have the opportunity to preserve and advance the art of choral singing, in addition to developing their talents by performing a varied and challenging repertoire, both sacred and secular. From Broadway and Negro spirituals to major works by Handel and John Rutter to American Folk and today's popular music, this ensemble strives to bring diversity to its audiences.

Artistic direction is provided by Suzanne Ringer. Suzanne currently serves as the Director of Music and Organist at St. Peter Lutheran Church in Chapin, SC. Accompaniment is provided by Frances Webb. She presently she serves as Dean of the Greater Columbia Chapter of the American Guild of Organists.

Currently the Society performs two formal programs each year and a mid-winter fundraiser. Rehearsals begin in January for the spring season and in August for the fall/winter season. New members are welcome. Only an informal audition with the director is required. Membership dues are $60 per year. If you are interested in singing in the Dutch Fork Choral Society, call Lill Mood at 803.345.3460 or e-mail at info@dutchforkchoralsociety.com.

And, as the Society does not charge admission to its formal concerts, donations and sponsorships are gratefully accepted at the door or may be mailed to

DFCS, P.O. Box 223, Chapin, SC 29036
